Re: Michael A. Webb
Case # 12339-00, 12339-01, 12339-02, 12339-03
Early Release from Supervised Probation

Dear Judge McGinty:

On May 21, 2002, the above named Subject was placed on supervised probation by the Williamsburg/James City County Circuit Court following convictions of Robbery: Business, Firearm: Use in Commission of Felony, Firearm: Poss/Transport by Felon and Wear Mask in Certain Places. He served a total of fifteen year in the Department of Corrections facilities.

The Subject's supervision has been acceptable at this time. Webb has been attending his mental health meetings with Genesis Counseling Center, reported as instructed, and was placed in a low level supervision in June 2016. Conversation with the Subject's mother, who is a Social Worker with Eastern State Hospital, confirmed she will continue to take him to his counseling meetings. He has no financial obligations. At this time, we will close interest in his case.

If you have any questions regarding this case, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Respectfully submitted,
